From Fr. Havel...

“For the Son of Man did not come to be served but to serve and to give his life as a ransom for many.” These words of Jesus teach us again that our lives are to be rooted in service to God and one another.

We live in a world that seems obsessed with self-promotion. People often say or do things to get publicity. They want to tell others how great they are. Jesus shows us that greatness is not found in having a position of authority or notoriety but is found in the heart of a servant. Jesus says, “Rather, whoever wishes to be great among you will be your servant, whoever wishes to be first among you will be the slave of all.” Come Lord Jesus and help us to be faithful servants.

St Casimir School Update

Greetings

It has been a very busy fall, to say the least, but we are moving along. The students participated in the marathon on Friday, October 8. We had a warm and sunny day, and the students were real troopers. They made many laps around the park even though the weather was a bit hot.

The students received a lot of information about reading strategies and procedures the first few weeks that will benefit them going forward. We are now reading a variety of fiction and nonfiction in reading class for third through sixth graders. I also teach social studies to these grades, and the students are learning about the regions of our country in third and fourth grade while the fifth and sixth graders are learning about United States history along with government and economics this year.

Columbus Day was on Monday of this week, so we talked about where and when this explorer and crew actually landed and their discovery of this area and the Native Americans. One of my reading groups read a story this week that tells about the journey of Columbus, and the other groups will be giving a readers' theater performance about the history of Columbus.

That is all for now. God bless!

Mrs. Bixby
