PRAYER & WORSHIP

15th Ordinary Sunday, July 14, 2024-B Cycle
Readings: Amos 7:12-15; Ephesians 1: 3-14; Mark 6: 7-13

Maybe the work is best left to the professionals. That's how many people view the preaching of the Gospel. That's the stuff priests, religious, deacons, lay ministers, and other professional Church people do. It has little to do with me. Well, that's not true.

The fact of the matter is that preaching the Gospel has everything to do with me, with all of us, who are baptized members of the Body of Christ. Nobody gets off the hook from that job. The question is, how do we do it? Well, there's a safe way, which many choose, to preach the Gospel and the risky way.

The safe way pretty much keeps the Gospel in Church and around like-minded people. I say my prayers, go to Mass, contribute to the food pantry, tithe, and attend Bible Study. That pretty much covers the bases, right? Wrong.

The risky way is the more challenging way and for many, the "road less traveled." Imagine those first disciples going out and into people's homes. They must have had some amazing conversations with folks about God's kingdom, changing their hearts, forgiving sins, and looking at the world differently.

They must have met people who were hurting, exiled from their communities, neglected, lost, or living self-insulated lives in a society that served the rich and neglected the poor. The Gospel, while being a message of joy and hope, is not always received well by those who are very comfortable keeping things as they are.

The risky way involves example and conversation. We must take the Gospel from church and carry it with us wherever we go. Our conversations with others reveal a great deal about how we see things and what we consider important. We must be the example, live value centered virtuous lives, stand against injustice, combating racism, and learn ways to resolve conflicts without violence. ~ Fr. Prapat

Prapat at 507-226-4536, or your parish office, if interested.

Mark 6:10-11

“How kind is our Sacramental Jesus! He welcomes you at any hour of the day or night. His Love never knows rest. He is always most gentle towards you. When you visit Him, He forgets your sins and speaks only of His joy, His tenderness, and His Love. By the reception He gives to you, one would think He has need of you to make Him happy.”

St. Teresa of Avila
